

Paul is a Vice President and Acting Executive Director, of the Project Management Office (PMO) and Procurement Operations. In this role Paul supports the CIS mission by leading the acquisition strategy, program execution and delivery, of critical capabilities to CIS.

Paul Renaud joined CIS in May 2022, as the VP, of Acquisitions and Procurement having spent 25+ years in technology. Previous organizations included Hewlett-Packard, Globalfoundries, Marvell Technology and most recently a start-up. His experience includes global leadership positions in Information Technology, Procurement, Program Management, Business Operations, and Business Development. Responsibilities included large-scale technology systems, merger and acquisitions integration, program development, technology development and strategic supplier management. Paul has focused his leadership on driving change, and building cultures of execution.

Paul earned a BS in Engineering from Purdue University and holds an MBA.